

Marlow Rowing Club Women HOCR 2017

Event 25 3:07 PM Women's Masters Fours (40+)

Kate Mackenzie	GB International 1996-2002
Gillian Lindsay	World Champ Silver & Gold, Olympic Silver (W4x, 2000)
Dame Katherine Grainger	World Champ Gold x6, Silver x1, Bronze x1, Olympic Silver x4, Gold x1 (W2x, 2012). Most recently Silver in Rio. Invested as a Dame in 2017.
Cath Tillett (née Bishop)	World Champ Silver (2- 1998) and Gold (2- 2003 – Olympic Silver (2- 2004)
Cox: Leigh Heyman	Sarah Lawrence, MIT Sloan School, Obama Whitehouse

Marlow Roster Bios

Kate MacKenzie 	Kate MacKenzie was born February 26, 1967 and resides in Great Britain. Clubs: Thames RC GB International 1996-2002 2002 World Rowing Cup III (Munich) W2 – GBR FC Final Time: 07:35:730
Gillian Lindsay 	Gillian Lindsay (born 24 September 1973, Paisley) is a Scottish rower. She currently is Director of Sport, The Mount School, York. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Birthdate 24 Sep 1973 • Place of residence: Henley-on-Thames, Great Britain World Champ Silver & Gold, Olympic Silver (W4x, 2000 Sydney Games – 06:21.640)
Dame Katherine Grainger 	Katherine Grainger CBE (born 12 November 1975 in Glasgow) is a British rower and a 2012 Olympic gold medalist. Grainger is also a four-time Olympic silver medalist (Most recently in Rio) and six-time World Champion. She represents Edinburgh's St Andrew Boat Club in rowing events. Grainger first won silver at the Sydney Olympics in 2000 in the woman's Quadruple Sculls. In Athens in 2004 she won silver in the coxless pairs. In Beijing 2008 she won her third silver, again in the Quadruple Sculls. In Rio 2016, she won her fourth silver in the 2X with Vicky Thornley. Grainger has won eight medals at World Championships between 1997 and 2012. She has also won the Rowing World Cup in the Quadruple Sculls in 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2010 and the Double Sculls in 2010, 2011 and 2012. At the London Olympics 2012, Anna Watkins and Grainger broke the Olympic record as they qualified for the Double Sculls final. They then went on to win the gold medal. With five Olympic medals, Grainger shares the record as Great Britain's most decorated female Olympian. She won silver in Rio (2016).
Cath Tillet (née Bishop) 	Catherine (Cath) Bishop (born 22 November 1971) is a former British rower. She was educated at Westcliff High School for Girls. Bishop has a BA in modern languages from Pembroke College, Cambridge, a master's in international politics from the University of Wales, Aberystwyth and a Ph.D. in contemporary German literature from the University of Reading. Bishop won medals at the World Championships twice, a silver in 1998 in the women's pair with Dot Blackie, and then in 2003 she won the gold, again in the pair, with Katherine Grainger. After winning silver in the 2004 Olympic Games in the women's pair with Grainger, she retired from rowing and took up a career with the Foreign Office, for whom she worked in Sarajevo and Basra. In 2010, she married Matt Tillet in Leigh-on-Sea, and has two young children.
Cox: Leigh Heyman 	Leigh Heyman was born August 7, 1971, and resides in the Boston area. He started rowing in 1995 and is a five-time HOCA champion and 2007 US National Team member. He is also a former White House Policy Advisor and Tech Director.